

General Nash Spring Book Fair and Literacy Night

“Paws” to read with us!
March 15, 2018

We will be hosting the talented local author and illustrator Val Jones at the 2018 Spring Book Fair and Literacy Night. Learn about Val’s inspiration for the writing Who Wants Broccoli? Val’s book is about Broccoli, a dog who lives in an animal shelter and has dreamed of being taken home as someone’s pet for a long time.

Val Jones’ Presentation 6:15 – 7:00 pm
Meet Val and hear her story!

Bring a dog food donation that evening and be entered into a drawing to win a prize basket containing Val’s book and other fun pet accessories.

Home and School will be hosting the Spring Book Fair this evening, too! Come pick some good books and enjoy free snacks! Student writing and ceramic artwork will be on display from 6:00 – 7:30 pm

Questions about Literacy Night?
Please contact Mrs. Eagan (eaganla@npenn.org)